MICHELIN Guide inspectors' point of view

"You may think you can order food any time you want in a restaurant, but chef Paul Pairet disagrees. At the Chop Chop Club, meat mains are cooked on a schedule. Two mains and some sides appear on the giant screens every 15 minutes from 7 to 9:30 pm every night. Like a bidder in an auction, hungry guests compete for their favourite mains before they're sold out. Bertha's shitake is highly recommended."
